SNOW FELL IN NEW YORK.

Unusual June Weather in the Metropolis on Sunday.

New York, June 3.—Snow fell in New York yesterday, though the flakes were not of the sort that make slighing and snow balls nor did they fall as snow all the way to the pavements, but coming from a colder strata they swirled about the tops of the sky scrapers and before melting added a midwinter touch to the most remarkable June 2 that New York has known.

The warmest moment of the day was 12:05 a. m. when the temperature was officially recorded at 51 degrees. At 10:20 a. m. the mercury had dropped to 45 and at six o'clock last night it had risen to 47.

At the local weather bureau the day was admitted to be the coldest recorded here on the second of June. A stiff breeze accompanied with a heavy rain-fall prevailed throughout the day. Holiday excursions were abandoned and the pleasure resorts were without patrons.

At an early hour the wind attained a velocity of fifty miles an hour. The blizzard of the night was felt in the Bronx where a two-story and a half completed frame house was torn apart, and its timbers scattered for a block. Fences were laid flat and signs torn from the business buildings. On Third avenue a row of workmen's shanties were wrenched out of plumb.

NOT THE MAN
THEY WANTEDBarre Suspect Not Identified
by Quincy, Mass., Inspector

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY

Joseph Barry Was Thought to Be Fred
Crosby—He Does Go to Jail For Intoxication Charge—Wanted to Take Pledge.

When Joseph Barry, the man who was arrested Saturday morning on the suspicion of being Fred Crosby, a young man who is wanted in Quincy, Mass., for larceny, was seen this morning by Police Inspector McKay, who arrived from Quincy last night, the officer declared he was not Crosby. Barry had been before Judge Scott in city court Saturday evening and had pleaded guilty to the charge of intoxication. Sentence was suspended until this morning to allow for the disposition of the outcome of the Quincy officer's visit.

After Inspector McKay said he was not the man he wanted Barry was brought into court and fined $5 with costs of $2.27. Barry said that he had no money and asked the court to put him on probation or let him sign the pledge, but when informed by the court that he would have to pay the costs before he could be put on probation, he said he couldn't pay it and the court then sentenced him to the county jail for 15 days.

Barry said he was from Quincy, Mass., but lately had been working in Hardwick. He told the chief Saturday that his first name was Fred, but in court he said it was Joseph. The Quincy officer said that the charge against Crosby was for stealing money from his employer, a groceryman. Crosby had been a delivery clerk and it was claimed that he had taken several hundred dollars of his collections from customers.

John Kelley, who was arrested Saturday morning by Deputy Sheriff H. D. Camp for intoxication, was arraigned in city court Saturday evening and pleaded guilty. He had no money and the court sentenced him to the county jail for 20 days. Kelley said he had recently come here from Fitchburg, Mass.

Crosby is wanted for stealing between $500 and $400 from the grocery firm of Timberlake & Small, by whom he had been employed. He left Quincy March 15 and has never been heard from since.

CABOT.

Last Wednesday afternoon records the raising of another flag at the schoolhouse in the Wallbridge district by Mrs. S. G. Veody and scholars, assisted by parents and other citizens. Appropriate exercises by the children and remarks by Rev. W. L. Jennings and F. E. Currier and others made a very pleasant entertainment and one long to be remembered by the children who took part.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Banfill last Wednesday evening in honor of the marriage of their niece, Miss Edith Morse to Dean Batesholder of Hartford, Conn. The wedding taking place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albro Burnham of Barre the Sunday afternoon previous, solemnized by Rev. I. P. Chase of Plainfield. Both parties have been residents of this town nearly all their lives. Over 60 neighbors and friends gathered to bestow their farrow wishes for future prosperity and happiness as well as a sum of $20, in money, beside several pieces of silver, linen, books of poems and other useful articles. Miss Grace Morse played a wedding march as the bridal couple took their place beneath an arch of evergreen and white flowers from which were suspended several bells. After they had received congratulations, Rev. F. E. Currier made some remarks, which were cordially responded to by Mr. Batesholder. Refreshments were served of cake and coffee. The happy couple took the morning train for Hartford, Conn., where Mr. Batesholder has a position in a store, carrying with them the best wishes of their many friends.

MR. MANN'S VIEWS.

Tells What He Believes Can Be Done
With Four Schoolhouses.

Mr. Editor:—In view of the fact that we have another city meeting next Tuesday night I wish to take exceptions to your report of the last meeting concerning myself, saying I wanted to crowd the children in more closely together. Now this is not true, I simply wanted to utilize the vacant space which we already have, making another room which would not crowd them together any more than they are at the present time and which entry space I content is of no benefit to the children as it now is and could be used to good advantage as a school room taking nothing from the comfort of the children, neither making it any more dangerous or difficult as regards their safety in case of fire.

I ask every citizen who can possibly do so to post themselves before the coming meeting by looking over the Ayers street school house, Brook street and Wood-chuck knoll schoolhouses that they may better understand how the suggestions I make could be accomplished. Now with a few suggestions I leave it with the voters believing they will do the right thing although they may be censured by a certain few who have the vested right to use all money raised for school purposes as judiciously or otherwise as they please.

Now I think it time that the citizens of Barre paying as much on each dollar of the grand list for school tax alone as many towns do on their whole tax should demand a strict accounting for the money that can be used for school purposes as they do for the money that is given to build the same.

The schoolhouses that we now have, or some of them at least, have two halls seventy feet long and eleven feet and nine inches wide with a stairway at each end of the hall. We could put in a room thirty feet long and then have a hall with a stairway at each end and twenty feet long leaving a school room in the center as before mentioned, leaving a hall at each end twenty feet by eleven feet and nine inches, ample room for all purposes, this having reference to the hall on the second floor leaving the hall and the first doors as they now are.

And let every voter bear in mind that our school tax, as I understand it, will be from ninety cents to one dollar on each dollar of the grand list and every voter can know the facts by going to the city clerk's office and looking it up or through the city report, but this is as I understand it and am ready to be corrected if wrong.

Now if we can make one room in each of the four school houses, Wood-chuck knoll, Ayers street, Brook street and perhaps Summer street school houses we would have a four-room school house at a nominal cost and save the greater expense of building at the present time. And let the voters ask at the coming meeting of the school commissioners the number of children now attending school from out of the city and demand an answer.

WATCH AND SEE.

What "Home" Girls are Engaged to Succeed Married Women Teachers.

Mr. Editor, Dear Sir:—We see, by Saturday's issue of The Times that the citizens' wishes in regard to the employment of our married women teachers have been set aside by the school board, the question being not even brought up again.

Now, we are anxiously waiting to see the names of the "home" girls who are to be put in their places. This has been a reason given by our school board for discharging six competent teachers! See if those to whom the board has offered these positions are "home" girls or girls who came from other places to get the experience which they need in order to obtain schools in Massachusetts and New York. Watch!

BURNS CLUB
FESTIVALPicnic Season Was Started
Off Saturday

WITH A FINE OCCASION

Nearly All The Members of This Organization, With Their Families, Attended and Played, Sang and Danced.

The picnic season at Caledonia park was formally opened Saturday when the members of the Burns club and their families gathered there for their annual outing. The Burns club for several years past has been the first to set the ball a-rolling for the many picnics held by the different organizations in the city every summer at this park.

Nearly every member of the club was out Saturday and spent a most enjoyable afternoon. The base ball game which is always one of the chief sports at the occasion, was played by two teams captained by William Mackie and J. J. McKinnis. Capt. Mackie was the slab arm for his team and he surprised himself and everyone else by striking out seven men and winning the game 7 to 3.

One of the many features of the game was the pitching of Lamont, who was knocked out of the box in the first inning, after Mackie's slugging had straightened his curves for six runs. George McKinnis then took the place of Lamont, resigning.

The teams were made up as follows: Capt. Mackie, p. Bill Jim Anderson, 1b. Jim Booth 2b, Little Jim Anderson 3b. McDonalds, Alexander c. Ingalls, Watt, Scott, Yule and Pirie, fielders; Capt. McKinnis, team, Lamont p. 2b. Mackay 1b. 3b. Har. 3b. Bird 3b. Alex. Milne c. Anderson, c. Blake, Cheever, Patterson, Christie and A. McDonald, fielders.

In the boys' race Leslie Morrison was first, James Mackie second, John McDonald third. Mrs. William Scott and Mrs. James Booth were tied for first place in the married ladies' race. Thowless, the hammer, Robert Ingalls, first. James Patterson, second. Ex-Alderman Milne third. Joseph Yule won the sack race, D. Blake second, Leslie Morrison third and Alex. Rae fourth. Putting the shot, Robert Ingalls first, J. J. McKinnis second, J. K. Marr third. The special feature of the race was a hundred-yard race between Robert Ingalls and J. J. McKinnis, which Bob won and Jack declared he would have been a close second if he hadn't dropped his specks.

The first game of the afternoon was the football game. J. J. McKinnis was again one of the captains and Charles Campbell the other. The hoodoo was working a third time for Jack and he lost by a score of 1 to 0. Dancing was enjoyed in the pavilion between the games, music being furnished by the Burns Club Quadrille orchestra. The party returned at seven o'clock on a special train over the Wells River.

The committee which had charge of the picnic was composed of the club officers: President, James Rae; vice-president, William Scott; secretary, Robert Ingalls; secretary, Alex. Smith; and James K. Anderson, J. J. McKinnis and Fred Bird.

ANOTHER TEAM DROPS
FROM LEAGUEEast Manchester Is The Third Premature
Base Ball Graduate In This New Hampshire State League.

Another New Hampshire state base ball league team has "thrown up the sponge." It is East Manchester. Franklin is not in the best of shape either, but it is expected that with a change of management the team will go along as before. The directors of the league, at a meeting which was held in Laconia yesterday and which was attended by D. T. Donnelly for Barre-Montpelier they had an idea that Plattsburg might be induced to come into the league in place of East Manchester.

The latter team, through J. J. O'Connor, withdrew after he had failed to get a favorable response from West Manchester for a merger of the two teams. The East Manchester team was paid in full Saturday night and it is said that all other obligations will be met.

As now constituted the league consists of Barre-Montpelier, Burlington, West Manchester, Franklin and Laconia, two other cities, Concord and Nashua having dropped out last week. The directors hope to get in Plattsburg and make a six team league.

A REMARKABLE REUNION.

Brothers Who Hadn't Seen Each Other
For Forty Years Meet in Barre.

A reunion which is quite remarkable is being held this week at the home of Mrs. A. A. Northrop, 174 Merchant street. By tomorrow the surviving children of a family of some are expected to be together. John Winslow and Frank W. Winslow have arrived from Nebraska and Seattle, Washington, respectively, to visit their sister, Mrs. Northrop, and the fourth one, the Rev. Forrest Winslow of Whitefield, N. H., is looked for tomorrow.

John and Frank Winslow had not seen each other for 40 years when they met at their sister's. Frank's last visit to Barre was 51 years ago and he remarked that the place was changed considerably in the half a century. The Winslow homestead was in the town of Walden, this state, and the members scattered when comparatively young. Their reunion at this time is a very happy occasion.

YOUNGSTER WENT EXPLORING.

Recovered From Policeman By Frantic
Mother After Three Hours.

Little Charlie Johnson, a fair-haired youngster of two years, wanted to go the things beyond his own door-yard in the east end of Maple avenue, and yesterday, after his mother had put him dressed in Sunday white and had gone about her household duties, little Charlie got his two-wheeled tip-cart and started. Down Maple avenue he wandered as big as life, trundling his cart. At length he came to the junction of Main street and then came another decision, whether to go up-street or down. Up-street seemed to offer the more inducements for excitement, so still dragging his precious cart, he turned southward and proceeded along the street.

Charlie attracted lots of attention as he strutted unbecomingly along, taking in the views, at the same time disdaining any proffers of assistance from the people, most of whom, thinking he must lie nearby, let him trudge. At length he arrived in front of the city hall, a mile away from his home and from a by that time, frantic mother. He paused to gaze about and attracted the attention of two special policemen, John McIver and Joseph Dyer, who thought it a strange place for a youngster of that age.

They took the child and his cart in charge and then decided they had a lost child on their hands. Knowing no better way to find his home they started down the street, hoping in that way to meet someone who knew the parents of the child. They had got about half-way to the junction of Maple avenue when a woman darted toward them from across the street and had the child soon enfolded in her arms. Sobbing with joy she thanked the policemen and told them how the baby had wandered away from home three hours before. The happy woman was Mrs. Charles Johnson of upper Maple avenue.

WOMEN HURT
IN RUNAWAYMrs. George H. Allen Had Her
Spine Injured

HOW BADLY NOT KNOWN

She With Her Son, Ernest, and Miss
Mabel Garrity Were Thrown Out of Wagon When Horse Became Frightened by Whistle.

Mrs. George Allen is at her home in Grantville suffering from an injury to her spine sustained in a runaway accident in this city yesterday. Two other persons in the team with her, a son, Ernest Allen, and Miss Mabel Garrity, were also thrown out of the wagon but were not badly hurt. A train on the Barre railroad was the cause of the accident.

Mrs. Allen was driving to this city and had just reached the intersection of South Main and Quarry streets and had stopped to take a Miss Garrity when the quarry train passed. At the Quarry street crossing the engine whistled, startling the horse which then ran without control against an unused telephone pole throwing out the three occupants of the wagon. Mrs. Allen fell heavily, but the other two fared better, being able to walk afterwards. Through the kindness of William Somerville's people who live near the scene of the accident Mrs. Allen was cared for until her husband arrived to take her to her home. The injured woman was placed on a cot and in that manner was carried to Grantville.

Dr. W. E. Lagalle was summoned to attend her. He found that there were no bones broken but that she had sustained quite a serious injury to her spine, nearly as serious as is not known at this time. She seems to be partially paralyzed by the fall, being unable to move. The doctor is in hopes, however, that there will be no lasting injury.

The runaway horse had short career after smashing into the telephone pole. The contact freed the animal from the vehicle but James Campbell of 199 South Main street stopped him before he had run far. The wagon was smashed up considerably. The boy, Ernest, was somewhat bruised, and Miss Garrity, although receiving quite a shock, was able to walk the remainder of the distance to church.

WAS KNOCKED DOWN
AND THEN RUN OVERUnknown Man Got Up and Walked Away After an Encounter With Team, Apparently Not Badly Hurt.

An unknown man had a narrow escape from serious accident or death on North Main street during the rush of Saturday night. He was crossing the street near the head of Granite street when a team containing a man and a woman came along. At the same time an electric car was passing. The unknown got into the street when the horse, frightened by the car, leaped sideways and struck the pedestrian, knocking him down. Then the animal plowed ahead and the head of the vehicle passed over the body of the prostrate man. People rushed to the victim's assistance but were surprised to see him get to his feet and walk off, with apparently no other hurts than bruises. The driver of the team came back to see how badly the man was hurt and was pleased to learn that he was not seriously injured. No one seems to have been to blame except that the pedestrian didn't exercise enough caution.
